

"Babe" Now a Basket-ball Champ

The celebrated home run clouter as he appeared in N. Y. in a game against the championship Celtics.

"Uncle Joe" Breaks Record.

JOSEPH G. CANNON, D. C. "Uncle Joe" Cannon, war horse of the House of Representatives, has just established an American record. Counting his victory in the recent landslide, Mr. Cannon has been elected twenty-three times. He is now ending the forty-fourth year of service, passing the mark set by Justin Smith Morrill, of Vermont, who as Senator and Representative, served in Congress forty-three years, nine months and twenty-four days.

DIG FOR MONEY BURIED DURING WAR OF 1812

St. Catharines, Ont., Jan. 11.—A lost treasure romance has thrown this peaceful little city, embowered among orchards and vineyards on the Grand Trunk Railway, into a furore of excitement.

Since the war of 1812 a tradition has lingered that a large sum in gold lies buried in a cemetery at the edge of town and certain superstitious folk have averred that in the midnight watches a ghost in the cocked hat and regiments of a soldier of a by-gone era stands guard above the treasure. The old graveyard recently was included in a residence subdivision and it became necessary to disinter the ashes of the pioneers. When an advertisement for workmen appeared hundreds who had never done manual labor in their lives rushed to secure pick and shovel jobs.

The legend goes that when the American troops under General Winfield Scott crossed the Niagara frontier into Canada, a paymaster of the British forces buried the army payroll in the cemetery and to mark the spot, carved his initials on a beech tree. He fell soon after at the battle of Lundy's Lane and carried his secret with him to the grave. How the cemetery became identified as the burying place of the treasure is a story of lost origin, but by the time

SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPHER—She Doesn't Get a Chance.

A-E-HAYWARD-11

TOOTS AND CASPER—The Refinement of "Ethelbert" Gets a Jar.

By C. M. PAYNE

SAY POP!—Does Alkali Ike Know Anything About Anatomy? He Does!

By GENE BYRNE

"REG'LAR FELLERS"

(Copyright 1920 by George Matthew Adams—Trade Mark Registered U. S. Patent Office.)

the legend arose the initialed beech tree had been chopped down for fire wood.

Estimates have placed the buried payroll at $50,000 or $100,000, but though the digging has now been in feverish progress for some time, not a single gold coin so far has been unearthed.

There are more than 300,000 Indians "still in our midst."

There are 5,516,163 people in the country who can neither read nor write.

FORMER PREMIER JOSEPH CAILLAUX IN TROUBLE AGAIN

Paris, Jan. 11.—Former Premier Joseph Caillaux is in trouble again. By a recent sentence in the French high court he was banished from Paris and is only allowed here by special authorization. But Caillaux leases a big flat in the aristocratic Monceau quarter and his lease is now running out. He applied to his landlord to have the lease renewed, but the latter refuses and has appealed to the judicial authorities to break off his contract with Caillaux definitely and resume occupation of the flat himself.

TOO FAT TO DROWN.

London, Jan. 11.—George Squibb, who appeared at Wareham Police Court on a charge of attempting to commit suicide, immersed himself in the sea, but owing to his corpulence he was unable to stay beneath the surface of the water.

Ohio gave the nation seven of twenty-nine presidents.

By TAD

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

THE MISOGYNIST

JUDGE RUMMY

